Berlin, April 15.-Dr. Miquel, Prusstan Finance Minister, will give on Wednesday the last official diner of the present parliamentary session. It will be a grand function. Chancellor von Caprivi, it the Prussian Ministers and a host of imperial peputies have been invited, and hardly a tendency of modern political life will be unrepresented. The dinner cannot be said to celebrate the success of just in committee. It is meant rather to disprove ecent reports that his official position is shaken. He intends to give up neither his office nor his plan of fiscal reform. He still hopes for better luck in

M'CARTHY HAS FAITH IN ROSEBERY. IN ANY CASE THE IRISH. HE ASSERTS, HOLD THE GOVERNMENT OF ENGLAND IN THE HOLLOW OF THEIR HANDS.

London, April 15 .- Justin McCarthy addressed a large meeting in London this evening, under the suspices of the St. Pancras branch of the National Liberal Association. He had much to say of the charge made by some anti-Parnellites and all the Parnellites that Home Rule was not receiving auffitent consideration from the present Cabinet. "Im-maintely after Mr. Gladstone resigned," Mr. Mc-Orthy said, "I was especially summoned to meet lim to discuss the prospects of Home Rule. Mr. Gladstone had then, and has still absolute configentlemen who constitute the present Cabinet are faithful to the Home Rule caus After mentioning Mr. Gladstone's conviction that Lord Rosebery was easer to give Ireland all the rights which the old Premier had proposed to grant rights which the old Fremier had proposed to grant rights which the old Fremier had proposed to grant her in the former Home Rule bill, Mr. McCarthy said the Irish now had on their side a Ministry said the Irish now had on their side a Ministry said the Irish now had on the same age, not even excepting Ministries led by Mr. Gladstone. Even if the Liberal party should lose control of the Government, the Irish would have the democracy of England. Sectional and Wales behind them, and their cause would be safe. They must ultimately win. He did not believe that the Liberals would fall Irish do not believe that the Liberals would at once oppose them and would eject them from office, for the Irish held the balance of power in Parliament. The Tories had come grovelling, cap in hand, to the Irish, and they might do it again, hoping to be enabled by the Irish to get back into office. In any case, the Irish held the Government of England in the hollow of their hands.

Mr. McCarthy deprecated public discussion of party differences. The majority must govern, he said. On all questions of principle, he added, the party was still united.

Lockroy, who was sent to Toulon by the Naval Commission of Inquiry to ex-amine the fortifications there, made his report While the honesty and loyalty of the taff were above suspicion, he said, it was undeblable that their administration was inefficient. The greatest disorder prevailed in every department and there was the greatest need of fresh blood and weeping reforms in the management of naval af-

M. Lockrov said that the big 10,000-ton warship Magenta, which was only recently completed, was irrutally worthless. Admiral Valion agrees with M. Lockroy on this point. He says that the Magna is of an obsolete type and dangerous. The fast severe impact either above or below the water-line, he adds, would cause her to keel over.

The Commission decided not to accept at once the conclusions of the report made by the sull-com-

STRIK NEWS FROM FALL RIVER.

Fall River, Mass., April 15,-The striking cardroom operatives at Mechanics' Mill will return to work to-morrow morning and the mill will soon be work to-morrow morning and the mill will soon be in full operation again. Investigation made by the strikers since they left work disclosed the fact that they had been receiving bigher wages than other mills were paying for similar work.

Agent Simon B. Chase, of the King Philip Mill, has been subjected to much comment because he believed in paying higher wages than was paid in Delieved in paying higher wages than was paid in other mills engaged in making the same class of fabrics in New Bedford and Rhode Island. He has stoutly maintained in manufacturers' meetings that a conservative treatment of operatives was better a conservative treatment of operatives was better than the theories advanced by men of longer experience. He conferred with members of the Spinners' Association, and after much difficulty he convinced them that the position they had taken was wrong, in the present market conditions. He did wrong, in the present market conditions. He did not confer with the weavers or carders, but he expected that they would work after the spinners had agreed to start. He now finds himself confronted with the Weavers and Carders' unions, who are arrayed against his mills alone.

Mil-holland Club, No. 111 Clinton Place, on Saturday evening. The handsomely furnished apartments of the new club were filled with members and applicants for membership. John McCabe, the ex-fire chief, was unanimously elected president, and accepted the honor in a stirring speech in which he predicted the redemption of the district from Tammany Hall domination and a majority in the VIIIth for a Republican Mayor and Governor. Charles P. Bible was elected first vice-president; A. S. Glibert second vice-president; C. W. Zimmerman, secretary, second vice-president; C. W. Zimmerman, secretary, and John Daney, treasurer. Over 100 members were present to vote, and there were forty-three more applications for membership. The treasurer announced that the cost of furnishing the headquarters, about $50, had already been paid, leaving a balance of nearly $1,000 in the treasure; A committee on Organization, composed of 110 members, with Henry Clay Piercy as chairman, was appointed. The members of the committee will look after the primarles in the VIIIth District this evening, and take cognizance of any violations of the Primary Election law.

The new clubroom will be the headquarters of the Republican Organization of the City and County of New-York, in the Assembly District. A bust of Abraham Lincoln, of heroic size, ornaments the president's rostrum, and fine engravings of Ulysses S. Grant, James A. Garfield, James G. Blaine, Chester A. Arthur, Salmon P. Chase, and other world-renowned advocates of Protection and Republicanism, hang won the walls of the clubroom, The bouse warming will take place next Saturday evening.

CONSERVATIVE ACTION IN ORANGE. VICTORIOUS REPUBLICANS WILL BE IN NO HURRY ABOUT MARING CHANGES.

The Republican members-elect of the Orange Common Council held a conference last week at which the policy of the incoming council was discussed. It was decided that action should be nonpartisan and conservative, and that no sweeping, wholesale removals from offices should be made. There are certain Democratic officials, however, who will be removed, among them the Superintendent of Sewers, the Street Commissioners and the City Counsel. These are all notoriously unfit the City Counsel. These are all notoriously unfit appointments, particularly the Superintendent of Sewers, who possesses no qualification for the superintendence of the sewer system, which has cost about $1,000,000. In regard to other officials the Council will act slowly and with deliberation. No official will be removed simply because he is a Pemocrat, unless he is found to be dishonest or incapable.

The constitution of the standing committees for the year is attracting much.

George Ellot remarked that "what makes life dreary is the want of motive." As a purpose in life, set yourself a course of reading. Send to Levell, Corvell & Yourself a course of reading. Send to Levell, Corvell & Co., Cammeyer Building, for Mrs. Oliphant's "Victorian Age of English Literature." It will help you to the choice of subjects and authors.

most important of these are the Finance, Sewerage and Street. Alderman Riker will undoubtedly be the chairman of the Finance Committee, Alderman Parkinson of the Sewerage, and a strong effort is to be made to induce Alderman Dexheimer to accept the Street Committee. Each committee will have a majority of Republicans on it, and the obnoxious members of the Council who have been aggressively partisan during the last year will be relegated to the foot of unimportant committees.

LEGISLATION AT TRENTON. RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK OF REFORM IN THE NEW-JERSEY STATE HOUSE.

Trenton, April 15 (Special).-Now that the lawmak-

to their joy over the magnificent indorsement of their control by the people at the polls on Tuesday last, they will get right down to work of restoring to the sovereign people that which the State Co-stitution guarantees to them, the right they has who lately held New-Jersey in a vice-like grip. A great deal of much-needed legislation for Jersey City, Newark, Paterson, Trenton and Camden w be got under way by this time next week. Bills be got under way by this time next week. Bills will be passed abolishing the present police courts in Jersey City and Newark, six in all, which are now presided over by Democrats, appointed for these terms by the Governor of the State, yet paid out of the city treasury. Before being enacted into law these bills will be so amended as to give the Mayors of Jersey City and Newark the power to appoint the city's own police justices. If the Mayor does not appoint proper persons to these offices ne will have to answer to the people of his town. In the second-class cities, Paterson, Trenton and Camden, the Governor's power extended still further. He actually controlled the police courts, police forces, overseers of poor, stewards of almshouses and the many assistants of these officials. The soverning bodles of these cities will hereafter appoint these local officials. There will be a bill introduced this week abolishing the present boards of works in Jersey City and Newark, and the Mayors will be empowered to appoint them. The members of the Newark Board of Works are now under indictment for alleged crooked work in connection with the Fry Hill reservoir contract. The new boards will be non-partisan in their makeup, and will last during the terms of the present Mayors, and after the expiration of which they will be made elective.

The Republican Joint Committee on Party Legislation is hard at work preparing a bill for apportioning the Assembly districts of the State. It is the intention of the framers of the bill to carve out at least thirty-eight sure districts for the Republicans, and to give the Democrats eighteen or twenty, leaving the others doubtful. will be passed abolishing the present police courts

INDIANS SING IN PLYMOUTH CHURCH. An old-time audience gathered last evening in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, at a sacred concert given by seventy of the pupils from the Carlisle Indian School. The church was crowded and all the aisle chairs were occupied. Vocal music was given by soloists, a quartet and a chorus of forty voices. Instrumental music was played by a band of thirty pieces. The selections included a gloria from Mozart. "The Heavens Are Teiling," by Handel: "The Three Fishers," "Nearer, My God, to Thee." and "Love Divine" Dr. Lyman Abbott del: "The Three Fishers," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Love Divine" Dr. Lyman Abbott spoke of the good work done by the Carlisle School, and Captain Pratt, who is in charge of it, told how he came to engage in the work of Indian education, and the success of the work at the school, where there are over 700 pupils.

The weather has been generally fair, but light local showers are reported from the South Atlantic States, Minnesota and South Dakots.

The weather will probably continue fair in the Southern, Middle and New-England States and the central engagement of the lake regions.

MINISTERS TO GO ON STRIKE. Sutersville, Penn., April 15.-The miners of the ower Youghlogheny will join in the general strike ordered by the Columbus convention of United Mine Workers' for April 21. Work was resumed on April I on the opening of the lake trade, and prospects seemed bright for the future. More than fifty coal operators will be affected by this strike in this dis-trict alone, and probably 10,000 men will go out.

FENCES ARE WEAFONS IN THIS FIGHT. The residents of the usually quiet little hamlet of Garrettson, S. I., have been amused for several weeks over a fence war which has been in progress between George Kabus and August Tanner. Both live in Sea View-ave. Kabus is an optician at No. 115 Third-ave., this city. Kabus lives on the south side of Tanner, but owns the property to the north of Tanner. Mr. Kabus not long ago erected a high of Tanner. Mr. Kabus not long ago erected a high board fence on the north side of Tanner's house. The boards are old ones, covered with circus and theatre lithographs. Then Kabus erected a tenfoot fence on the other side of Tanner's house. Tanner's house stands back some distance from the avenue while Kabus's is near it, so the fence does not shut off his view. Tanner then built a twenty-foot fence on the south corner of his property, shutting off a view from Kabus's house. They had a quarrel over a misunderstanding between Kabus and a relative of Tanner's. The affair is likely to get into the courts.

A RABBIT'S FOOT FOR A LIGHT SENTENCE

From The Washington Post.

He was brought to the Seventh Precinct police station in a half-drunken condition, and gave his name and color to the station-keeper as Samuel. Washington, negro. As usual, the officers began to rearch the prisoner before putting him in a cell, to see that he carried no dangerous weapon. The negro did not object to going through his coat pockets, as there was nothing in them, but when the policeman started to feel in his trousers pockets negro folded both hands and bent his body forward so rigidly that the pockets could not be reached. With visions of a razor, or possibly a pistol, in his mind, the officer finally forced his hand into the pockets and from each he drew forth a rabbit's foot. Everybody laughed.

"Deed, boss," said Samuel, "gimme dem fings back; dey's good luck ter dis nigger."

This caused another laugh among the officers.

Admirably clever is Percy White's novel "Mr. Bailey-Martin." "The London Times calls" it "an audacious book." Readers of it devour it at a sitting. (Lovell, Coryell & Co., Publishers, 310 6th Ave.)
